Hispanic Heritage Month Events at PCC

- Mi Historia: Celebrating Stories, Honoring Heritage

Tuesday, September 16 | 11 am-1 pm (drop in) | Student Center

Join us for a heartfelt celebration that recognizes PCC's designation as a Hispanic-Serving Institution. Students and employees will be invited to share their personal stories reflecting on identity, culture, family, and experiences that have shaped their journey. Their contributions will be featured in a campus display.

- Panthers En Movimiento

Tuesday, September 16 | PCC Rec Center

Take a break and refresh yourself in the Recreation Center with two powerful exercise sessions - Kinam (Tolteca yoga) from 1-1:45 pm, and Zumba from 2-2:45 pm. Come for one session or stay for both!

- Speaker Event with author Ernesto Sagás, Ph.D.

Latino Colorado: The Struggle for Equality in the Centennial State

Wednesday, September 24 | Noon-1 pm | Hoag Theater

Join us as Dr. Sagás delves into the rich history and significant contributions of Latinos in Colorado, highlighting their journey towards social and legal equality. This event is open to the community.

- PCC Block Party: La Fiesta del Pantera

Saturday, October 4 | 11 am-4 pm | PCC Courtyard

This open house-style event is part of our Hispanic Heritage Month celebration and is designed to be a vibrant, inclusive celebration of PCC and its people, our current and prospective students, and our designation as a Hispanic-Serving Institution. All departments are encouraged to take part so we can create a meaningful event for students and their families. Watch for details in the coming weeks.

- GameFiesta: Panther Edition

Wednesday, October 8 | Noon-5 pm (drop in) | Esports Lab

Enjoy classic games and next-level esports for the ultimate fiesta! Challenge your friends in Lotería, dominoes, Uno, and dominate the field with FIFA! Whether you're a seasoned gamer or just looking for some fun, this is your chance to connect and celebrate with your Panther familia.

- Latinx Leaders Panel

Wednesday, October 15 | 11 am-12:30 pm | Hoag Theater

This inspiring panel features influential Latinx leaders from both our campus and the greater Pueblo community, sharing personal stories of resilience, achievement, and growth. Learn about their educational and professional journeys, the challenges they've overcome, and the impact they continue to make in their fields.
