

PROGRAM LEARNING OBJECTIVES - HEALTH INFORMATION TECHNOLOGY

All program graduates should be able to:

- Examine and discuss medical and legal vocabulary as it relates to Healthcare Information Management (HIM) and Health Information Technology (HIT).
- Apply medical and legal vocabulary as it relates to HIM and HIT.
- Analyze and evaluate medical documentation, as components of a medical record, and relate established state and federal regulations, standards, and guidelines for implementation, use, and application of medical codes.
- Apply information technology to the use, access, and protection of healthcare records and healthcare software/systems (EHR, HIM, PM, CAC).
- Investigate the use, access, and protection of healthcare records and healthcare software/systems (EHR, HIM, PM, CAC).
- Perform job readiness skills to be successful in a job search.