

Here are just some of the many programs and careers available to Mathematics graduates from PCC.

Questions? Talk to your instructor or academic advisor.

Associate of Science (AS) in Mathematics

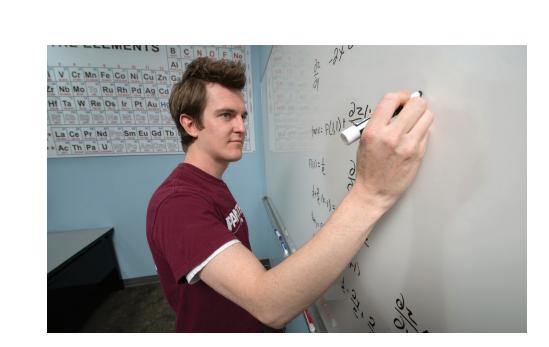

TRANSFER

Bachelor's degree in mathematics

Data

Scientist

Master's degree in mathematics

Grades 6-12 teacher

Actuary

Community

College

Teacher

Financial Planner

Economist

Cost Estimator

Statistician

Ph.D.

degree in mathematics

Algorithms

Engineer

Computer/

Information

Research

Scientist

University Professor/ Researcher

Meterologist

Geodesist

Quantitative Financial Analyst

Data or

Programmer

Analyst

Mathematical

Modeler

Accountant

Systems Engineer