

STUDENT LEARNING OUTCOMES (SLOs)

Graduates of the OTA Program will:

1. Model ethical, legal, and professional values and beliefs congruent with the profession in all practice settings.
2. Develop therapeutic programs to meet established goals based on acquired knowledge, published research, and practical experiences.
3. Demonstrate clinical reasoning skills during client centered interventions through innovative strategies.
4. Provide culturally competent care to individuals in a variety of settings.
5. Professionally interact within an interdisciplinary team.
6. Demonstrate effective and appropriate written and/or oral communication with team members, patients, and families.