

Library User and Borrower Agreement

Pueblo Community College students, faculty, and staff members may utilize library spaces and equipment per specified guidelines and limits, check out circulating materials, and have access to personalized research assistance. Community members have limited checkout privileges and access to the online catalog.

Library Users agree to:

1. Be courteous and respectful in all transactions.
2. Utilize library spaces, equipment, and materials with care and respect.

Library Borrowers agree to:

1. Be courteous and respectful in all transactions.
2. Present PCC identification or other photo identification.
3. Verify accurate contact information at each transaction.
4. Return or renew materials when due.
5. Pay replacement cost for any borrowed materials that are damaged or lost.
6. A borrower who fails to return materials and disregards library notifications will be unable to register for classes, receive grades, or check out additional library materials until the matter has been resolved.

The PCC Library Team agrees to:

1. Be courteous and respectful in all transactions.
2. Maintain confidentiality of all patron records and information requests in accordance with Colorado Revised Statutes 24-90-119 Privacy of User Records and the American Library Association's Code of Ethics.
